Awol Creations is a young street artist aged 21, based in Sydney's South. She has a passion for street art and design, endlessly doodling since she can remember. Awol Creations began mural painting in 2015 when she painted along the iconic Bondi 'Sea Wall.' Since then she has been involved in many community murals, street art festivals and several private commissions. She loves the power of street art with its ability to radiate all sorts of meaning as well as bring vibrancy and a whole other dimension to a public space.

Awol Creations' work generally possesses a pattern like nature, with intricate detail, fine line work, simple shapes and symmetry. She enjoys creating work with a unique flavour that each viewer can interpret differently.
